

The judgment of centuries is reversed; long established maxims are overturned; the Ethiopian is washed white; and the only genuine lovers of liberty were the Phillips, the Casses, the Cromwells, the Marises and the Syllas, of former ages.

It is time for allying patriotism to awake, when such doctrines as these are put forth from the capital, and from popular assemblies. It is time that the real republican party, (I speak not of former divisions, springing from causes no longer existing, and which are sought to be kept up by some men in particular places, only for sinister purposes)—that party, under whatever flag its members may have hitherto acted, that party which loves freedom, for freedom's sake—justly to estimate the impending perils, and to proceed with an energy and union, called for by the existing crisis in the republic. Regardless of all imputations, and proud of the opportunity of free and unrestrained intercourse with all my fellow-citizens, if it were physically possible, and compatible with my official duties, I would visit every State, go to every town and hamlet, address every man in the Union, and entreat them, by their love of country, by their love of liberty, for the sake of themselves and their posterity—in the name of their venerated ancestors, in the name of the human family, deeply interested in the fulfillment of the trust committed to their hands—by all the past glory which we have won—by all that awaits us as a nation—if we are true and faithful in gratitude to Him who has hitherto so signally blessed us—to pause—solemnly pause—and contemplate the precipice which yawns before us! If, indeed, we have incurred the divine displeasure, and it be necessary to chastise this people with the rod of his vengeance, I would humbly prostrate myself before Him, and implore his mercy, to visit our favored land with war, with pestilence, with famine, with any scourge other than military rule, or a blind and heedless enthusiasm for mere military renown.

"Gentlemen, I wish I had strength to expatiate upon this interesting subject; but I am admonished by the state of my health to desist. I pray you to accept my thanks for the sentiment with which you have honored me, and your permission to offer one which I hope will be approved by you.

"Genuine republicans, of every faith, who, true to the cause of liberty, would guard it against all pernicious examples."

TOBACCO.—There is an active feeling in the tobacco market, and considerable sales have taken place of Maryland and Ohio at previous rates. Sales of Ohio red at 4 to 56. We continue last week's quotations as follows, which are full, viz: Brown and greenish common 3 50 a 54; good and fair reds 4 50 a 55 55; fine reds 5 75 a 57; wrapper red, fine, 8 a $10; extra do. 10 a $11; common spangled 4 a $6; good do. 5 a $7 50; fine do. 8 a 9; yellow 10 a $12.

WOOL.—There continues a brisk demand for wool, and receipts of new clip are increasing, which meet with ready sale. Prices slightly improving. We note sales of 600 lbs. fine fleece at 33 cts.—Also 1000 lbs. tub washed at 27 to 31 cts. Also 4000 lbs. unwashed common at 19 to 21 cts., and 400 lbs. pulled at 20 cents per lb. There have been sales in all of about 10,000 lbs. Fine Merino 42 a 46 cents per lb.—Baltimore Sun of Saturday.

SABBATH SCHOOL CELEBRATION. AT ANTIOCH.

The above celebration was held at Pleasant Grove Meeting House, one mile from Antioch, Saturday July 3d, 1852.

Pursuant to previous arrangement, the two Sabbath Schools of Antioch and Pleasant Grove, met at the residence of Mr. Monroe, near the South end of the town, and formed a procession, which marched up through the town, attended by vocal and instrumental music, and then counter-marched to the place of their first meeting, and thence to the Grove at the Meeting House, where a large concourse of people consisting of more than six hundred persons, was assembled to participate in the celebration of the anniversary of our national independence.

The meeting was called to order, by appointing Dr. A. B. Covert, President, and Isaac Phillips, J. D. McWright, Robert Sterrett, S. A. Morgan, and Gen. E. Cline, Vice Presidents, and Thomas Mitchell, Jr., Secretary; after which, the celebration proceeded in the following order: 1st. Prayer, by the Rev. J. Whitney, followed by the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and music, vocal and instrumental, to the national tune of Hail Columbia.

After which, the company partook of suitable refreshments prepared for the occasion.

The meeting was then addressed by Dr. Benson of Brownsville, on the subject of American Liberty, followed by music, sung and played—Columbia.

A. Ross, Esq., of Woodfield, then addressed the meeting on the utility of Sabbath Schools. Music—Lady Washington.

The meeting was then addressed by Mr. Hull, of Antioch, on Education.

On motion, Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be presented to the speakers.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Spirit of Democracy. Music—Indian Hunter, and Bonaparte's Retreat from Moscow.

And then the meeting was dismissed with prayer, by the Rev. H. Cecil.

The above celebration was conducted with uninterrupted unity and harmony. The company seemed blessed with good health, and animated with fine patriotic feeling. The perfectly good order manifested by the assemblage, the marked attention of all present to the speakers, the increased numbers of the Sabbath School Scholars and Teachers, exhibited the most pleasing evidence of moral and intellectual improvement in Antioch and its vicinity.

ity; which, while it reflects great credit on the exertions of the benevolent persons engaged in the cause of Sabbath Schools, and affords strong proof of the love of good order among us, must be gratifying to the friends of moral and well-regulated society every where.

buildings not increasing such risk or hazard, due to any wise affect insurance previously made thereon.

Sec. 16. That if insurance on any house or building shall be and be subject in said company, in any office, or from and by any other person or persons, at the same time, the insurance made in and by said company, shall be deemed and become void, unless such double insurance shall be with the consent of the directors, signified by endorsement on the back of the policy, signed by the president and secretary.

Sec. 17. The corporations named in the first section of this act, or any five of them, may call the first meeting of the members of said company, at any suitable time, (within three years from the passage of this act,) to be held in Woodfield, in said county of Monroe, by advertisement in any newspaper published in said town of Woodfield, giving at least twenty days notice of the time, and place, and design of said meeting, for choosing the first board of directors; of making and establishing by-law, and of transacting any business necessary and proper for carrying into effect the provisions and intentions of this act; Provided, however, that no policy shall issue by said company, until application shall be made for insurance on at least thirty thousand dollars.

Sec. 18. That after the full term of twenty years shall have expired, from and after the organization of said company, under this act, the legislature [shall] have authority to alter or repeal the same, if they shall consider the public good requires it.

Sec. 19. That each and every one of the directors of said company, shall, before he enters upon the duties of said office, give bond to the treasurer of Monroe county in the sum of three thousand dollars, with good and sufficient security, to be approved by said treasurer, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, agreeably to the requirements, restrictions, and regulations of this act, and shall also take an oath of office; and on the complaint of any person who has been injured by the misconduct of any director, or shall be the duty of said treasurer to cause to be put into suit, on receiving security to indemnify the county against costs, and to certify to the court, who is the prosecutor in such cases, and the said court, on motion of the defendants in said cause, order the prosecutor to find sureties to indemnify the defendants for their costs, should he fail to prosecute or recover thereon; and if the defendant shall plead performance of the conditions of said bond, the prosecutor may reply as many breaches as he may, by a scire facias thereon, fit; and the jury on the trial of such cases as shall be put on them, shall assess damages for such breaches as the prosecutor shall prove, and the court shall render up such judgment for the whole penalty of the bond, and issue execution in favor of the prosecutor for such sum as the jury shall have found for damages and costs; and the judgment shall remain for the benefit of such person or persons as may, by a scire facias thereon, show that they have been injured by any breaches of the conditions of said bond; and if the prosecution shall fail to recover in such suit, the court shall award costs to the defendants, and thereon issue execution against such prosecutor.

Sec. 20. A majority of said directors may borrow money upon the credit of the capital stock or fund of said company, to pay any actual loss of said company, whenever they may deem it expedient.

Sec. 21. That all property belonging to said company shall be subject to taxation as other property, except the premium notes.
